In mentioning, last week, the treatment of Mr. S. A. Anderson's little son for application of the lungs we failed to mention that Dr. S. J. Wedding assisted Mrs. Stanley and Ford in reviving the little fellow after he was apparently dead. This was, of course, purely an oversight, and no neglect of Dr. Wedding was contemplated.

Mr. W. E. Newbolt, a farmer living about five miles north of town, was horror stricken Tuesday afternoon when he came into his yard and found his little three-year-old baby toying with a copperhead snake. The little fellow was evidently having great sport toying with the dangerous reptile, handling it as it would a harmless kitten. Mr. Newbolt cautiously took the snake from the child and bruised the serpents head.

B. S. Chamberlin, Capt. W. R. Carson, First Sargt.

The pet pig which had been considered one of the crew of the ill-fated City of Pittsburg is alive and well. The pig was one of the spectators to the horror which followed the burning of the boat. When the fire gained good headway the pig jumped overboard and swam ashore and then run around on the bank watching

The Small of the Back

That is where some people feel weak all the time.

They are likely to be despondent and it is not unusual to find them borrowing trouble as if they hadn't enough already.

The fact is their kidneys are weak, either naturally or because of sickness, exposure, worry or other influences.

"I am thankful to say," writes J. L. Campbell, of Sreamore, Ill., "that Head's Sarsaparilla has cured me. For many years I was troubled with backache. At times I was so bad I had to be helped from the bed or chair. I am now well and strong and free from pain." What this great medicine did for him it has done for others.

A Musical Genius.

Zachary Taylor Aiken, a sixteen-year-old musical genius, was arraigned before an inquisition here Monday, adjudged of unsound mind and sent to the Western Kentucky Lunatic Asylum at Hopkinsville. Such is the penalty genius has paid for existence in all ages and countries. With only a cigar box, some scraps of fencing wire and a crooked stick, Prof. Aiken, as he very appropriately called himself, broke the quiet stillness of the morning with notes never wrung from a musical instrument before. But cruel officers, whose ears were not attuned to music thus divine, laid violent hands upon him, and the matchless, marvelous son of song, is locked in a madman's cell.

Prof. Aiken, only a few days ago, for the first time, ventured from his parental hills of Butler county. Galileo-like, Prof. Aiken, dares to let his genius shine through grating bars.

Mrs. S. E. Hammack, of Hammack, Ky., writes: "With pleasure I recommend Ramon's Liver Pills and Tonic Pellets. I have used them myself for several years, and can testify as to their efficiency in sick headache and other troubles peculiar to our sex." The entire Treatment for only 25c.

To the Public.

It was decided sometime ago by Preston Morton Post No. 4 G. A. R. that we would not have any 30th-of-May exercises this year and it was so advertised. At the post meeting on last Saturday it was decided to countermand the foregoing order and have the regular 30th-of-May exercises, which will be held at Shinkle Chapel church on the 30th inst. Rev. Jenkins will preach the memorial sermon on that day. Sons of Veterans are invited and expected to attend. Everybody is invited and a good time is assured.
JAS. ASHLEY, Com.

Industrial Development.

Not only wage earners, but the public at large, will be interested in knowing that within a half a century the output from our factories has increased in value two and one-third times. In the same length of time by the number of wages earners was multiplied by five and one-half and the wages by ten. The most rapid rate of increase, both in the number of workmen, in wages in product and in value thereof, was during the
